

Maximising operational safety

The Liefkenshoek railway link is equipped with the ECTS (European Train Control System), the European standardised control system for controlling and correcting a train's speed, and executing an automated trip stop if necessary.

View from the ECTS testing vehicle during a test ride on the Liefkenshoek railway link

