

Minimising the impact on the access roads and the Brucargo zone

In order to ensure the access roads and the Brucargo enterprise zone a phased track laying method was developed in cooperation with the Agentschap Wegen en Verkeer at the Brucargo and Machelen interchange. Construction of the railway connection and of the interchange was optimally harmonized.