

Feasibility study for rail cargo transport in Belgium

Client Ernst & Young

Project description Feasibility study for the realization of a high speed freight railway network with an intermodal freight terminal (air-rail) at Liège airport.

TUC RAIL's assignment Technical feasibility study comparing the different alignment possibilities.

Period 2007