

Realisation of a new high-speed railway connection between Lille (France) and London (England)

Client High Speed 1

Project description Realisation of a new high-speed railway connection between Lille (France) and London (England). This new railway line passes under the North Sea through a 50 km long tunnel.

TUC RAIL's assignment High-speed rail consultancy.

Period 1998