

Minimising the environmental impact

In order to keep the environmental impact down to the bare minimum, the option decided upon was to have the part of the new rail link above ground sited almost entirely in the central reservation of the existing E19 motorway.

E19 motorway

