

Guarantee the safety of the underground infrastructure

In order to guarantee the safety of the underground infrastructure, suitable safety measures have been identified on the basis of an extensive RAMS analysis.

Dynamic evacuation guidance

Evacuation shafts

Ventilators for smoke and heat extraction

Automatic gas extinguishing system in high-voltage facilities

Criser system for the emergency services

