

Minimising the inconvenience for local residents

The location and project concept are such that any inconvenience for local residents is fairly limited. The only residential area impact is in the vicinity of the “Rietstraat” housing development in Mechelen.

In this case the following factors are taken into account:

Avoid the expropriation of built-on sites as much as possible

Take suitable measures to curb the impact of noise

© 2022 TUC RAIL